

Our family listens to K-Love at home, at work and in the car on a daily basis. It is a family-friendly station unlike any other and will be adversely affected if displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. K-Love is more than just a radio station, it's a public outreach vehicle that supports and encourages basic human values.